As an employer or home care worker in self-direction, payroll wages and tax withholdings are subject to special tax and overtime rules, and residency may impact benefits under labor laws. Completing this form accurately will ensure that taxes and benefits are calculated properly. For more information, visit IRS Publication 15, as well as relevant State tax and labor agency websites. To claim exemptions on either Federal or State (if applicable) Income Tax Withholdings, please mark EXEMPT on your W-4 or State Withholding Certificate, if applicable.

Exception: If you are the parent of the employer and select any of the following you are non-exempt

- I am the parent of the employer and I also provide care for my grandchild or step-grandchild in my child's home.
- I am the parent of the employer, and my grandchild or step-grandchild is under 18 or has a physical or mental condition that requires personal care of an adult for at least four weeks in a row during the calendar quarter in which services are performed.

- Non-Exempt. Overtime rates will be paid on time worked beyond 40 hours in a work week.

Per IRS Notice 2014-7, when a worker lives full time with a Medicaid self-direction program participant, for whom the worker provides care, the wages may be exempt from federal income tax withholding, which means the W-2 will show $0.00 wages paid. This is known as the Difficulty of Care exemption. Claiming this exemption may impact your Social Security benefits, so complete this section under penalties of perjury as an individual care provider receiving payments under a state Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services program for care provided by you to the participant(s), named in this document, who live(s) in your home under the care recipients' plan of care.
