

WV PERSONAL OPTIONS CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS

Workers must submit and pass a State and Federal Criminal Background Check (CBC) through WV Cares before being able to bill for services. You are also required to repeat this CBC every five years while you are billing for services. Workers must pay for the CBCs. It is very important that you keep your CBC appointment because you will not be able to provide services for payment until we receive a letter stating you can begin providing services from WV Cares.

Your results will be kept by the State Police and FBI so updates of any criminal history or changes can be submitted to Palco. Palco will receive monthly updates regarding your CBC. If the result of the initial or ongoing CBC reveals negative findings, WV CARES will put you on a list of providers who can no longer provide services. Palco will schedule your appointment through WV CARES.

Please fill out the Scheduling Form included in this packet. This will allow us to contact you about your CBC appointment. Be sure to include a working phone number and email address and print information clearly. You will not be able to bill for services if you have been convicted of the following crimes:

- State or Federal health and social services program-related crimes
- Patient abuse or neglect
- Health care fraud
- Felony drug crimes
- Crimes against care-dependent or vulnerable individuals
- Felony crimes against the person
- Felony crimes against property
- Sexual offenses
- Crimes against chastity, morality, and decency
- Crimes against justice

*PLEASE NOTE: Palco is not the employer and has no role in making employment decisions. If you can't provide services because of the results of the CBC; the participant/employer will not be able to hire you for the Waiver Program
