Frequently Asked Questions

Palco serves individuals who participate in the self-directed model by providing various financial, customer support, and informational services. Below are frequently asked questions to help you understand our processes, your requirements, and how to receive assistance.

How do I complete forms if I am unable to sign?

We encourage you to enroll online, as there are plenty of accessible options on our website. However, if you are unable to use our online system, you may either sign with an X or a mark, then have a witness legibly sign the document on the line above the 'witnessed by'.

What if I need assistance in completing forms?

Online enrollment is the easiest method for completing forms. Palco customer support agents can assist you in gaining credentials to enroll online. Or, if you would prefer, our staff can provide in-person assistance with completing forms.

When can the worker begin providing services?

Palco will notify the employer and the worker once all requirements for enrollment have been met. The date of this notification is the date work can begin. Any work performed prior to that date will not be paid by the program.

Are there limitations on when services can be provided?

All services are expected to be delivered when the participant is awake and face-to-face.

Can a worker provide services to multiple participants?

Two services cannot be provided at the same time. It is important to coordinate with other service providers regarding your start and stop times to prevent overlapping claims and ensure services can be paid.

What happens if a worker wants to work for another employer?

Workers may be employed by as many employers as he or she would like. Each time he or she begins working for a new employer, a new worker packet must be completed, just like getting any new job. However, some requirements may be waived depending on the circumstances, such as providing a copy of Social Security cards or documentation related to receiving direct deposit. Generally, background checks can also transfer, but be sure to check with your program rules to make sure you understand all the requirements.

What happens if a worker stops providing services?

Anytime a worker stops providing services, Palco must be notified via an Employment Separation Notice, which can be found on our website. Even after termination, workers should keep Palco aware of any changes in contact information throughout the year, so that we can send correspondence, such as W-2s, to the correct address.

How does a participant change an employer of record?

A Designation of Surrogate Employer form must be completed. Be sure to include the date of the change at the top of the form.

How does an employer of record change impact existing workers?

Workers must re-complete some new hire forms, such as the I-9. Palco will notify you of the requirements. Be sure to complete any required forms so that your pay is not impacted.

Can someone correspond with Palco on my behalf?

Federal and state privacy laws prevent Palco from disclosing personal information to unauthorized individuals. Palco will only correspond with workers about that worker's particular account. Surrogate employers may receive all information about the worker's accounts and information about the participant necessary to carry out employer roles. Participants have unlimited information on their account. Participants may appoint an authorized user by completing an Authorized User Designation form.

How are timesheets submitted?

Timesheets can be submitted online via our portal, by fax, by mail or email. When using the online portal, submit all time properly. Both the employer and the worker must approve all time before it can be processed for payment by Palco. Additional instructions can be found in our Online Registration Packet. When submitting a paper timesheet, follow all instructions to reduce submission errors. A properly submitted timesheet must be received before the deadline to ensure a worker's pay is not delayed.

When does a worker submit timesheets?

The employer is provided with a payroll schedule that shows the deadlines for submitting timesheets and scheduled payday. The payroll schedule for specific programs can also be found at palcofirst.com.

How will I know a timesheet was received and approved?

The online portal will display approval messages in real time. For other methods of submission, contact Palco Customer Support 48 hours after submission to allow time for processing.

What if a worker doesn't receive the funds on the scheduled payday?

For direct deposited payments, please allow sufficient time for the pay to deposit into your account. We recommend allowing 24 hours after payday for the deposit.

Will the worker receive a W-2 at year-end?

W-2s are available January 31. If receiving the W-2 by mail, please allow one week for delivery. All workers receive a W-2. Workers who earn less than the annual domestic service threshold, per IRS Pub. 15 (Circular E), will also receive a refund of over-collected FICA. The employer should encourage their workers to make sure that the correct address and direct deposit information is current with Palco prior to this date, even if the worker is no longer working. .0

How do I change my information with Palco?

The fastest and easiest method is to log into your account and change your information. Otherwise, you must complete the appropriate form and mail or fax it to Palco. All forms are found at palcofirst.com. For name and contact information changes, complete a Change of Information form and attach documentation to show proof of name change which can be driver's license, divorce decree or marriage license. For withholding changes, complete an IRS W-4, or Payroll Information Worksheet. To change payment information, complete a Direct Deposit Authorization. For any other changes, contact Palco customer support.

How can Palco be contacted?

Palco Customer Support representatives are available Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. CST, except state holidays. You may reach us by phone at 501.604.9936 or toll free at 1.866.710.0456, email to INFO@palcofirst.com, fax to 877.859.8757 or mail to P.O. Box 13260, Maumelle, AR 72113. Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

2025

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____
	Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEE'S MICHIGAN WITHHOLDING EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE (Form MI-W4)

You must submit a Michigan withholding exemption certificate (form MI-W4) to your employer on or before the date that employment begins. If you fail or refuse to submit this certificate, your employer must withhold tax from your compensation without allowance for any exemptions. Your employer is required to notify the Michigan Department of Treasury if you have claimed 10 or more personal or dependency exemptions or claimed that you are exempt from withholding.

You MUST provide a new MI-W4 to your employer within 10 days if your residency status changes or if your exemptions decrease because: a) your spouse, for whom you have been claiming an exemption, is divorced or legally separated from you or claims his/her own exemption(s) on a separate certificate, or b) a dependent no longer qualifies under the Internal Revenue Code.

Line 5: If you check "Yes," enter your date of hire.

Line 6: Personal and dependency exemptions. The number of exemptions claimed here may not exceed the number of exemptions you are entitled to claim on a Michigan Individual Income Tax Return (Form MI-1040). Dependents include qualifying children and qualifying relatives under the Internal Revenue Code, even if your AGI exceeds the limits to claim federal tax credits for them.

Do not claim the same exemptions more than once or tax will be under-withheld. Specifically, do not claim:

- Your personal exemption if someone else will claim you as their dependent.
- Your personal exemption with more than one employer at a time.
- Your spouse's personal exemption if they claim it with their employer.
- Your dependency exemptions if someone else (for example, your spouse) is claiming them with their employer.

Line 7: You may designate additional withholding if you expect to owe more than the amount withheld.

Line 8a: You may claim exemption from Michigan income tax withholding if all of the following conditions are met:

- i) Your employment is intermittent, temporary, or less than full time;
- ii) Your personal and dependency exemptions exceed your annual taxable compensation;
- iii) You claimed exemption from federal withholding; and
- iv) You did not incur a Michigan income tax liability for the previous year.

Line 8b: Reasons wages might be exempt from withholding include:

- You are a nonresident spouse of military personnel stationed in Michigan.
- You are a resident of one of the following reciprocal states while working in Michigan: Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Ohio, or Wisconsin.
- You are a member of a Native American tribe that has a tax agreement with the State of Michigan and whose principal place of residence is within the designated agreement area.
- You are an enrolled member of a federally-recognized tribe that does not have a tax agreement with the State of Michigan, you reside within that tribe's Indian Country (as defined in 18 USC 1151), and compensation from this job will be earned within that Indian Country.

Line 8c: For questions about Renaissance Zones, contact your local assessor's office.
