Frequently Asked Questions

Palco serves individuals who participate in the self-directed model by providing various financial, customer support, and informational services. Below are frequently asked questions to help you understand our processes, your requirements, and how to receive assistance.

How do I complete forms if I am unable to sign?

We encourage you to enroll online, as there are plenty of accessible options on our website. However, if you are unable to use our online system, you may either sign with an X or a mark, then have a witness legibly sign the document on the line above the 'witnessed by'.

What if I need assistance in completing forms?

Online enrollment is the easiest method for completing forms. Palco customer support agents can assist you in gaining credentials to enroll online or in completing forms in this packet.

When can the attendant begin providing services?

Palco will notify the employer and the attendant via email (or mail if enrollment was not completed online) once all requirements for enrollment have been met. The date of this notification is the date work can begin. Any work performed prior to that date will not be paid by the program.

Can an attendant provide services to multiple participants?

Yes. However, an attendant must abide by all program rules, especially those regarding overlapping claims for payment of services.

What happens if an attendant wants to work for another employer?

Attendants may be employed by as many employers as he or she would like. Each time he or she begins working for a new employer, a new attendant packet must be completed, just like getting any new job. However, some requirements may be waived depending on the circumstances, such as providing a copy of Social Security cards or documentation related to receiving direct deposit. Generally, background checks can also transfer, but be sure to check with your program rules to make sure you understand all the requirements.

What happens if an attendant stops providing services?

Anytime an attendant stops providing service, Palco must be notified via an Employment Separation Notice, which can be found on our website. Even after termination, attendants should keep Palco aware of any changes in contact information throughout the year, so that we can send correspondence, such as W-2s, to the correct address.

How does an employer change impact existing attendants?

Attendants must re-complete some new hire forms, such as the I-9. Palco will notify you of the requirements. Be sure to complete any required forms so that pay is not impacted.

Can someone correspond with Palco on my behalf?

Federal and state privacy laws prevent Palco from disclosing personal information to unauthorized individuals. Palco will only correspond with attendants about that attendant's particular account. Employers (consumer or authorized representative) may receive all information about the attendant's accounts and information about the participant necessary to carry out employer roles. Consumers have unlimited access to information held by Palco on their account.

How are timesheets submitted?

Timesheets can be submitted online, by fax, by mail or email. Instructions for online submission will be provided in your notification that your enrollment is approved.

When does an attendant submit timesheets?

A payroll schedule shows the deadlines for submitting timesheets and scheduled paydays. The payroll schedule can be found at palcofirst.com.

How will I know a timesheet was received and approved?

The online portal will display approval messages in real time. The Consumer, Authorized Representative, or Attendant may also contact Customer Support for additional information.

What if an attendant doesn't receive the funds on the scheduled payday?

For direct deposited payments, please allow sufficient time for the pay to deposit into your account. We recommend allowing 24 hours after payday for the deposit. For paper checks, if you have not received within 5 days, please contact at 1.866.710.0456 or email to CO-CDASS@palcofirst.com.

Will the Attendant receive a W-2 at year-end?

W-2s are available January 31. If receiving the W-2 by mail, please allow one week for delivery. All attendants receive a W-2. Attendants who earn less than the annual domestic service threshold, per IRS Pub. 15 (Circular E), will also receive a refund of over collected FICA. The employer/authorized representative should encourage their attendants to make sure that the correct address and direct deposit information is current with Palco prior to this date, even if the attendant is no longer working.

How do I change my information with Palco?

To change your information, complete the appropriate form and mail or fax it to Palco. All forms are found at palcofirst.com. For name and contact information changes, complete a Change of Information form and attach documentation to show proof of name change which can be driver's license, divorce decree or marriage license. For withholding changes, complete an IRS W-4, or Payroll Information Worksheet. To change payment information, complete a Direct Deposit Authorization. For any other changes, contact Palco customer support. To change the attendant's rate of pay, please complete the Attendant Pay Rate Information form.

How can Palco be contacted?

Payroll Information Worksheet

As an employer or home care worker in self-direction, payroll wages and tax withholdings are subject to special tax and overtime rules, and residency may impact benefits under labor laws. Completing this form accurately will ensure that taxes and benefits are calculated properly. For more information, visit IRS Publication 15, as well as relevant State tax and labor agency websites. To claim exemptions on either Federal or State (if applicable) Income Tax Withholdings, please mark EXEMPT on your W-4 or State Withholding Certificate, if applicable.

Part A: FICA (Social Security and Medicare) Taxes

The IRS exempts some employers and workers from paying FICA (Social Security and Medicare) taxes.

Exception: If you are the parent of the employer and select any of the following you are non-exempt

I am the parent of the employer and I also provide care for my grandchild or step-grandchild in my child's home.

I am the parent of the employer, and my grandchild or step-grandchild is under 18 or has a physical or mental condition that requires personal care of an adult for at least four weeks in a row during the calendar quarter in which services are performed.

I am the parent of the employer, and my child (son or daughter) is widowed, divorced, not remarried or living with a spouse who has a mental or physical condition so the spouse cannot care for my grandchild for at least four weeks in a row during the calendar quarter in which services are performed.

Part B: Unemployment Tax Exemption

The IRS and State tax agencies exempt some wages from FUTA (Federal Unemployment) or SUTA (State Unemployment) taxes.

Part C: Overtime Exclusion

There are several factors that may qualify a worker as being exempt from overtime payments or ineligible for overtime based on program specific rules. Palco is not your employer and cannot decide whether you are exempt or not. By checking the appropriate box, you are telling Palco how to pay overtime wages

Non-Exempt. Overtime rates will be paid on time worked beyond 40 hours in a work week.

Exempt. Exempt from overtime pay for any reason, including program rules or qualifying for the DOL Home Care Rule Exclusion, as the live-in caregiver residing at the participant's residence at least 5 days per week. Part D: Income Tax Withholding Difficulty of Care (DOC) Exclusion Information.

Per IRS Notice 2014-7, when a worker lives full time with a Medicaid self-direction program participant, for whom the worker provides care, the wages may be exempt from federal income tax withholding, which means the W-2 will show $0.00 wages paid. This is known as the Difficulty of Care exemption. Claiming this exemption may impact your Social Security benefits, so complete this section under penalties of perjury as an individual care provider receiving payments under a state Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services program for care provided by you to the participant(s), named in this document, who live(s) in your home under the care recipients' plan of care.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial _____	Last name _____	(b) Social security number _____
	Address _____		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .

	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Electronic Visit Verification Attestation of Exemption Form

The Department of Health Care Policy and Financing (HCPF) allows exemption from Electronic Visit Verification (EVV) in these situations:

- Caregivers that permanently live with the Health First Colorado (Colorado's Medicaid Program) member receiving services; the most common exemption type, and it expires in 365 days.
- Caregivers with extenuating circumstances or do not permanently live with a member; a less common exemption type that must be pre-approved by HCPF and expires in 365 days or less.
- Caregivers or members asking for reasonable modifications under the protection of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA); the least common exemption type that must be pre-approved by HCPF and does not expire.

An EVV Exemption must be requested using this EVV Attestation of Exemption Form and include supporting documentation. If you are approved for an EVV Exemption, you are not required to collect EVV data for the approved timeframe. However, you may still be required to document services electronically according to your provider agency's policy. If the EVV Exemption is approved, the billing provider is responsible for billing of the EVV Exemption using the correct billing methodology.

Terms and Definitions

EVV Exemption is a general term used to describe exemptions from EVV requirements based on live-in caregiver status including extenuating circumstances; as well as caregivers and members exempted from EVV based on reasonable modification under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Live-in caregiver is a caregiver who permanently resides in the same residence as the member receiving services. Live-in caregiver status is determined by meeting requirements established by the U.S. Department of Labor, Internal Revenue Service, or HCPF-approved extenuating circumstances. Documentation of live-in caregiver status shall be collected and maintained by the billing provider or FMS Vendor then submitted through the Provider Web Portal.

Extenuating circumstance is a live-in caregiver status beyond the standard definitions and granted by HCPF. It allows for situations like joint custody, foster care, members transitioning from residential services, caregivers residing with a member for extended periods of time¹ and other less common situations. This type of EVV Exemption requires HCPF pre-approval and may be approved for less than one year.

Reasonable modifications under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federally mandated accommodation that ensures individuals with disabilities have an equal opportunity to participate in programs, services, and activities when modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination on the basis of disability. This type of EVV Exemption requires HCPF pre-approval and does not expire. It is most commonly used to support members who perform employer of record responsibilities in the CDASS program.

Attestation date is the day this form is signed by the member or Authorized Representative and used as the "effective" date when submitting an application through the Provider Web Portal.

Billing Provider submits claims for and receives reimbursement for Medicaid services; submits EVV Exemption documentation through the Provider Web Portal. Both provider agencies and Financial Management Service (FMS) Vendors must have a billing provider identification number in order to perform these activities.

Provider Web Portal is an online portal provided by HCPF. It is used by billing providers and FMS Vendors to manage various administrative tasks related to Health First Colorado services.

Legally responsible person is any person who has a duty under state law to care for another person, such as the parent of a minor child or a spouse.

Permissible Supporting Documentation are HCPF-allowed documents required to verify the EVV Attestation of Exemption Form. Records must contain current information relevant to the EVV
